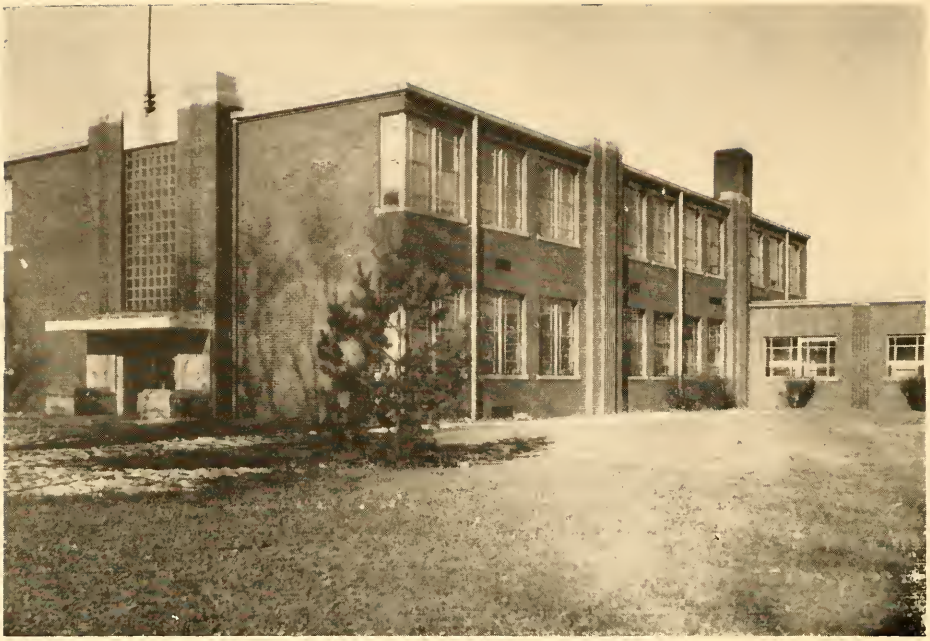
FOREWORD

Our steadfast purpose of publishing the "TWINKLER" is to leave with the on-coming Seniors of SCHS a document of our achievement in the four years previous.

The "TWINKLER" is published each year by the Seniors of Star City High School.

—THE SENIOR CLASS



DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1946, dedicate this annual to the future graduates of Star City High School who will set forth a high goal and do their best to reach it.

CLASS HISTORY OF "46"

On the morning of Sepember 3, 1934, our Star City Class Plane of "46" started on its long trip that was to last twelve long years. Our pilot was Julia Phillips and our passengers were Dean Allen, Beverly Dickson, Marilyn Durbin, George Eddington, Arnold Foust, Ronald Foust (our twins), Letitia Harris, Darl Hettinger, Neil Hoesel, Martha Johnsou, Worley Jones, Corabelle Kistler, Delight Moon, Virginia Murphy, Harold Ruff, Margery Ruff, Edith Shelhart, Walter Smith, and Lucile Thomas. But before too long, one of our passengers, Worley Jones got sick and had to parachute out near the city's best doctor's office. We then landed at "Moyer's Station" and let off Edith Shelhart, and picked up two new passengers, Lawrence Rude and Olive Hauser. We were near the end of the first run in our trip but everyone was eager to continue the trip, (silly people).

Before too much time had elapsed, we were ready to start on the second part of our journey with Maude Buck and Alma Wirick as our pilots. This was 1935, and though we waited as long as we were allowed to, Olive Hauser and Walter Smith failed to reach the airport in time. But as we checked over the passenger list we found that our new passengers included: Dorothy Baldwin, Donald Hedger, Bernard Nies, Betty Wagner, and Dale Sadilla. At our next stop, George Eddington and Lucille Thomas got off the plane, but just as the plane was ready to start, Bernard Nies woke up and realized that he was to get off here so we lost another passenger. At our next stop we had a very delayed vacation.

The vacation passed before we knew it and we were ready for our trip to continue. This was in the fall of 1936, and we found that we had the same pilots as we had the previous trip (how they stood us two years we'll never know). There was an addition to our list of passengers and they included: John Epler, Beverly Korner, Doris Begthel and Hazel Frazier. As we studied the list we realized that we had lost several passengers. Those who did not board the plane were: Victor Day, Arnold Foust, Ronald Foust (our twins), and Betty Warner. After we had traveled quite a ways, Beverly and Kenneth Colby, Wayne Davis, Darl Hettinger, and Doris Begthel decided to get off at the next stop. It was quite an exciting trip, this run, but we made it.

The day was quite dark and dreary on this day in 1937 but we decided to start on the fourth run, no matter what the weather. Our pilots were Maude Buck and Clara Noel and the passengers on this trip were a little tired but the addition of a few new passengers added interest. The new passengers were: Gertrude Bucks, Wanda Bonnell, Viola Scott, and a new pair of twins, Betty and Bob Kelly. But as we left we saw Dorothy Baldwin, Beverly Korner, and Virginia Murphy running out on the airfield but they were too late so we lost those passengers on this trip. We landed at "Moyer's Station" and let Gertrude Bucks, Lois Ewing, Donald Hedger, Corabelle Kistler off. By this time we were pretty tired of traveling so we set the plane down for a needed rest.

It was our fifth run and we were still getting new passengers. Yes, this was 1938. Our pilot was Mrs. Densborn and we were ready to take off. The new passengers were: Bob Berkshire, Miles Hettinger, Duane Rassmussen, Bobby Russell, Frank Herald, and Monna Lou Vanscoyk. Looking around we failed to see Wanda Bonnell and Lawrence Rude on this part of our journey. We were getting to the halfway mark on our journey and there wasn't anyone who wanted to get off so we traveled right along and then set the plane down and took our vaaction between runs, but it wasn't long before it would be time to leave again.

"All aboard!!! we are now ready for our sixth trip and our halfway mark will be reached. Mrs. Densborn is our pilot for this part of our trip. To our surprise, Beverly Dickson and Harold Ruff failed to make it to the airport in time to get aboard the plane, but we got several new passengers to make up for the loss of those two. The new passengers were: Imogene Scott, Wanda Foreman, and another pair of twins, Dan and Joe Royer. But they didn't stay on the plane long for the twins, Frank Hearld, Duane Rassmussen, and Monna Lou Vanscoyk got off at the next stop, which happened to be between THE NEW SCHOOL BUILDING and GRADUATION. But it wasn't long before this part of our trip was over.

My! how time flies! This is 1941 already. This trip is really interesting. We have a new pilot, Mr. Surber, and our co-pilot is Mrs. Fisher. This trip we have our first crew, it includes: Mr. Carpenter, Mrs. Snyder, Miss Thompson, Mr. Hyman, and Miss Clausen. We flew South this time and at Thornhope we picked up Ruthalea Batty, Darl Daily, Kathryn Fisher, Don Graffis, Roger Seward, Alberta Jones, Arthur Lind, Gus Mangold, and Clara Smith. The plane waited a few minutes overtime and Jeannee Quinn and Jane Crissinger came running to the plane just in time to get in their seats before the plane took off. At our next stop, Clara Smith and Jane Crissinger got off, so the plane wasn't nearly as crowded as we thought it would be. We were glad that this part of our trip was over but we were all looking forward to the next part of our trip.

September of 1942; what a year to be alive!!! The passengers were very full of energy so we put ourselvs to work and — guess what we did???? That's right, we painted our plane a very vivid green. When all the work was done we took off on a very remarkable trip. We got down our charts and at last found our way to the big airport, Fairview. We picked up Lyle Burgess (that's where he came from), Arlean Grostefon, Cecil Hood, Mary Kasten, Doris Kistler, and Gene Williams. We continued for several miles and then stopped to pick up Paul Widup, Rowena Sterner, and Eileen Hollis. We had traveled quite a long ways so we decided to rest up for the next part of our interesting journey. OOPS! I just about forgot!!! Our pilot was Mr. Surber, and Mrs. Fisher was again our co-pilot. Our crew was about the same, it consisted of one new member, Mrs. Mitchell.

It was a bright, sunshiny day, that day in 1943, when we zoomed into the blue for the tenth part of our trip. Mr. Surber was still our pilot, and our co-pilot was Mr. Walter. Our crew consisted of: Mrs. Slaybaugh, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Carpenter and Mr. Carpenter, yes, we had quite a few changes in our crew but we didn't complain. (We couldn't, could we?) There a few new members who joined our passengers on this trip, they included: Hubert Montgomery, Eddie Russell, Eugene Ingrim and Eddie Pollen. We landed at a new airport and when we stopped we left a lot of our passengers who were destined to end their trip on a different airline. These passengers were: Hubert Montgomery, Gene Williams, Paul Widup, Rowena Sterner, Gus Mangold, Martha Johnson, Eugene Ingram and Bob Berkshire. We were ending the tenth part of our trip and were eagerly looking forward to the good times we would have on our next run.

The date was September 3, 1944, and we were Juniors!!! We really had to celebrate this occasion, and we did, the whole time we were on the trip, but it was plenty of work—getting ready for the celebrating, I mean. Our pilot this trip was Mr. Surber, as the year before, and our crew was as follows: Mr. Carpenter, as co-pilot, and Mrs. Salions, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Stoudt, and Mrs. Moyer. Glancing through the passenger list, we found that there were only two new passengers on this trip, they were Olive Peters, and Walter Perry. This trip was too interesting for anyone to bail out, or to stop off at some destination so we all stayed on the plane and had a swell trip.

Around rolled 1945, which seemed only a short time since we had started our journey. With Mr. Surber as our pilot, and Mr. Carpenter as our co-pilot and Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Servies, Mrs. Moyer, and Mrs. Stalions as our crew. About half-way through the trip Mrs. Moyer bailed out and Miss Thompson got on at our next stop. All our old passengers were on for the rest of the trip except Eddie Polen. He must have missed the plane because of some last minute excitement. Those passengers who successfully reached their destination were as follows: Dean Allen, Ruthalea Batty, Lyle Burgess, Jane Crissinger, Darl Daily, Arlean Grostefon, Hazel Frazier, Don Graffis, Kate Fisher, Mary Kasten, Cecil Hood, Eileen Hollis, Neil Hoesel, Walter Perry, Olive Peters, Delight Moon, Doris Kistler, Imogene Scott, Viola Scott, Roger Seward, Margery Ruff, and Jeannee Quinn. But we all give three cheers for those who flew with us all twelve runs of our trip, they were: Dean Allen, Neil Hoesel, Margery Ruff and Delight Moon. Our trip was through, and where we will all go from here is yet to be written in history. Let's hope that the next twelve years will be as happy and as worthwhile as the last twelve.

CLASS WILL

I, Dean Allen, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to someone who needs it as bad as I did, my ways with the girls and my Civics book to my brother Bill.

I, Ruthalea Batty, do hereby will and bequeath my height to Joyce Royer, my neatness to Olive Hauser, and as for "Spike" I will keep him for myself.

I, Lyle Burgess, do hereby will and bequeath my basketball ability to Jack Capper, my ability to stay in History class to anyone who needs it, and all my "family" friendships acquired during high school, I will keep.

I, Jane Crissinger, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay in classes to Jack Kasten, and my ability to carry a tune to Vivian DePoy.

I, Darl Daily, do hereby will and bequeath my long, dark, and curly hair to Joe Bill Newman and my front chair in English to someone who does not need the sleep.

I, Kathryn Fisher, do hereby will and bequeath the junk in my notebook to Bob Berkshire, my position as editor of the "Star Review" to anyone unfortunate enough to get it, and the memories of the fun I had in school I will keep.

I, Hazel Frazier, do hereby will and bequeath my locker to anyone who has the ambition to clean it out, my shorthand book to Mrs. Servies, and my art ability to Violet Clark.

I, Don Graffis, do hereby will and bequeath my position as captain of the basketball team to Buck Parcel, my red hair to Junior Smith and my willingness to study to Jack Kasten.

I, Arlean Grostefon, do hereby will and bequeath my figure to Lester Hettinger, my ability to say sarcastic things to Delores Brown, and as for Darl I will keep him myself.

I, Neil Hoesel, do hereby will and bequeath my position as editor-in-chief of the annual to some poor sucker, my figure to Rollo Batty, and my ability to make good (?) grades I will keep. (I'll need it.)

I, Eileen Hollis, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to keep quiet in study hall to Jim Carpenter and Wanda Bonnell and my ability to get along with the Sophomore boys to the Sophomore girls.

I, Cecil Hood, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have the will power to let the girls alone to anyone who wants an education and my job as treasurer of the class to Evelyn White.

I, Mary Kasten, do hereby will and bequeath my typing ability to Bill Allen and my love for Van Johnson to Julia Russell.

I, Doris Kistler, do hereby will and bequeath my gum to Mrs. Servies, my devilish ways to Joan Bauman, and my ability to always keep quiet to Joan Ruff.

I, Delight Moon, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get "A's" in typing and shorthand to Annabelle Fox, my ability to play the piano to Rollo Batty, and my ability to get what I go after to Wanda Bonnell.

I, Olive Peters, do hereby will and bequeath by bashfulness to Lillian Bonnell and my ability to keep my nose out of other people's business to Delores McCroskey.

I, Walter Perry, do hereby will and bequeath my height to Archie Hettinger and my Business English book to someone who likes English better than I.

I, Jeannee Quinn, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to control my temper to Joan Ruff, my long hair to Mary Ann Perry, and my men I will keep for myself.

I, Margery Ruff, do hereby will and bequeath my timidness to Bob King and my embroidered socks to Virginia Lee Brown.

I, Roger Seward, do hereby will and bequeath my quiet, sedate ways to Bob King, my knowledge in Science to Donnie Cornell, and my ways with the girls to Bud Kistler.

I, Imogene Scott, do hereby will and bequeath my natural curly hair to George Limings, my dancing ability to Jack Parish, and my moccasins to Leah Jane Crosgray.

I, Viola Scott, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play the accordion to Joyce Royer, and my motto "Ha Ha" to Lois Moss.

We, the Senior Girls known as "Our Gang," do hereby will and bequeath our ability to stick together to the eighth grade boys or to any gang who can stick together that long and our sweaters we will keep for ourselves for memory's sake.

To Mr. Surber our thanks for helping us struggle through many years of Math. and may he have many more successful years of being principal.

To Mr. Carpenter the sponsorship of many more Junior and Senior classes to come and our knowledge of Science we will take with us.

To Mrs. Carpenter many more quiet classes as ours was and the coaching of many more Junior and Senior plays to come.

To Mrs. Servies our typing ability to serve as a goal for all future Seniors and the sponsorship of many more Sunshine Girls to come.

To Mrs. Stalions our Government books for future Seniors and our knowledge of Government we will keep in case we decide to be lawyers.

To Mrs. Moyer the memories of those good meals and our ability to cook we will keep for our future homes.

To Miss Thompson our thanks for the ability to sew for our future homes and may she have many more successful years of teaching.

To Mrs. Franks our thanks for keeping our money straight during our Junior and Senior years and may she have many more years of successful teaching.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby will and bequeath our good behavior to all coming Star City students and much success in their "reaching the top."

CLASS PROPHECY

Place: Star City High School. A fortune teller is telling the Seniors of 1946 what they will he doing in the future.

Time: 1956.

KATHRYN FISHER will at last achieve her great ambition to become a dietitian in a hospital. She will have a life-time job at Riley Hospital in Indianapolis. She will announce her forthcoming marriage to Ed Gady.

HAZEL FRAZIER wll be a famous Power's model. Her pictures will appear on all the well-known magazine covers in the most glamorous poses. In her spare time she will do art work.

ARLEAN GROSTEFON will marry Darl Kistler. They will live in Illinois on a 320-acre farm. With their small son, Darl Jr., their adorable home will be complete.

The old bachelor of the class will be DARL DAILY. He just won't be able to "get that ring" on "her" finger. He will be a very prominent business man in the large city of Thornhope, whose population will be 6,000. He will have a large law firm on the 69th floor of the Expire State Building.

DON GRAFFIS, after ten years of struggling along, will own a 400-acre farm in Iowa. His dutiful wife, who will be the former OLIVE PETERS, will cook, darn his socks, and take care of their two young ones. They will make a charming couple and will be very devoted to each other.

IMOGENE SCOTT will be secretary for The Honorable CECIL HOOD. She will have to sit on his knee as there will be a shortage of chairs in his office. Cecil will be the President of The Hood-Non-Breakable-Dent-Proof Record Factory in Chicago. In her off hours Imogene will keep house for her husband, Buck Parcel.

MARY KASTEN will be the favorite maid in the home of Van Johnson. She will be very fond of her work and also her employer. She will be the envy of all the Star City High School girls.

DELIGHT MOON will be playing the piano with the great Concert Orchestra at Carnegie Hall in New York. In her off hours she will do all the household duties for her husband, Jim Carpenter. They will live in New York and their small daughter will keep both of them busy.

DORIS KISTLER will be the President of the famous "Old Maids Society." You will be able to locate Doris and the Old Maids recreation building near Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana.

ROGER SEWARD will be the idol of all the bobby-soxers. His crooning voice will swoon them all! What's more he will thoroughly enjoy his work. He wouldn't give his work for even Betty Grable!

DEAN ALLEN will be a world-wide famous conductor of Allen's Hotsy Totsy Jazz Band, playing in all the well known night clubs of America.

LYLE BURGESS will crash Hollywood and make love to all the beautiful ladies.

Lyle and Mrs. Burgess, the former Nancy Huff, will live in a beautiful Beverly Hills home, complete with swimming pool and everything else you can think of.

MARGERY RUFF will be the owner of the great 40,000 acre "Lonely Hearts" dude ranch. She will, with the aid of her husband Bill, take the place of the deceased Dorothy Dix, mend all the broken hearts of all the broken-hearted people coming to her Ranch.

RUTHALEA BATTY will be one member of the famous Dancing Batty Sisters' Trio, appearing on stage and screen. One of her show hits "Hot Foot Floozie" will be on Broadway for six months.

NEIL HOESEL will be the owner of the great Hoesel's Men's Department Store in San Francisco. Neil will have the reputation of being the best dressed man in the United States.

JANE CRISSINGER will be the favorite dress designer among the movie starletts in Hollywood. Her unordinary designs will become famous and will be known all over the world.

WALTER PERRY will open the new Stinkum Glue Factory in Star City. The Star City population will be 15,000 at the time but it will steadily decrease due to unpleasant circumstances. His wife, Louise, will encourage him in his good work.

JEANNEE QUINN will still be single and not settled down to anything in particular. She will do odd jobs here and there and will manage a gay and flighty life.

VIOLA SCOTT will be the owner of the Nifty New Novelty Shop in Brooklyn. You will always be able to buy something new and nifty at Viola's shop.

EILEEN HOLLIS will be living in Florida with her husband Bill Batty. They will have a nice bungalow near the beach and their two children will have a fine backyard in which to play.

CLASS POEM

OUR STEADFAST HOPE

The hope we've had throughout the years,
Was to have courage enough in store,
To help us and guide us and show us the way,
When success opens wide her door.

We've struggled through twelve decisive years,
We've stumbled along life's trodden way,
We've tried and failed, then tried again,
We've gained knowledge with each passing day.

We've made decisions, though we needed help,
We've dreamed, and made some dreams come true,
We've read, and studied, and improved ourselves,
We've strived for something useful to do.

We've worked hard, and gained happiness,
We've rested, and made many a friend,
We've slowly but surely climbed the ladder,
Leading to a happy and worthwhile end.

We know now, that the day will come,
When we'll be put to a definite test,
And we'll pass it, and win our most cherished dream,
And our steadfast hope, SUCCESS.

—Imogene Scott.

SENIOR PLAY

The Class Play, "Professor, How Could You?" was presented in the high school gymnasium on Friday evening, October 5, before a packed house.

This cast was as follows:

Keats Perry	Lyle Burgess
Vicky Randolph	Arlean Grostefon
Valarie Whitman	Doris Kistler
Priscilla Morley	Kathryn Fisher
John Appleby	Dean Allen
Grandpa Perry	Cecil Hood
Grandma Perry	Eileen Hollis
Tootsie Bean	Imogene Scott
Butcher Boy Bean	Walter Perry
Boggins	Don Graffis
Prompter	Darl Daily
Coach	Mrs. Carpenter

The scene of the play is in the living room of the Perry household. Keats has had an offer for a job as dean of a school if he gets married before the week was up. Everyone was trying to get him a wife. They threw at him a little Southern charmer who thought of nothing but boys and clothes. John brought his cute little secretary over to meet Keats while Tootsie Bean was in there doing her bit to get in with the "Professor." After a hectic time with John Appleby impersonating Lulu, Keat's secret wife, Keats decides that Vicky Randolph, a spirited college girl, is the girl for him.

The Junior Play, "Brother Goose," was given April 5, in the high school gymnasium.

This cast was as follows:

Carol Adams	Doris Kistler
Jeff Adams	Don Graffis
Wes Adams	Neil Hoesel
Hy Adams	Arlean Grostefon
Eva Mason	Hazel Frazier
Peggy Winkle	Kathryn Fisher
Lenore Hudson	Mary Kasten
Mrs. Lulu Trimmer	Ruthalea Batty
Sarah	Jeannee Quinn
Helen	Jane Crissinger
Truck Driver	Dean Allen
Prompter	Lyle Burgess
Coach	Mrs. Carpenter

The plot of the play is centered around the Adams family with Jeff as the household head. He is a young architect who is trying to keep his family together when on the scene arrives Peggy Winkle, a saleslady, to help him. Lenore Hudson is the rich girl who is after Jeff while Wesley, his brother has his trouble with a little southern charmer, Eve Mason. Hy is the one who provides the fun with her antics as a foothall fiend. The play comes to a climax when Jeff and Peggy decide to marry and care for "Jeff's flock" together.

BAND

The school band, consisting of 32 members, played for the Basketball games held here this year, for the tourneys at Monterey and Kewanna, for Junior and Senior plays, and also for Commencement.

The band also played, with numerous other bands, for the Victory Parade held at Logansport last fall.

The community has organized a Band Parents Organization, consisting of the parents of band members. They have drawn up a constitution which provides for raising money for the band and to make rules and to oversee the band. They are raising money for the new band uniforms, which will be purchased as soon as possible. Their colors are blue and gold. The President of this organization is Mr. James King; Vice President, Leah Bishop; Secretary-Treasurer, Dorothy Surber. Those entering the solo and ensemble contest this year are: Solos, Darlene Surber, Sandra Warner, Virginia Brown; piano; John Simmermaker, Bob King, cornet; sousaphone, Tommy Blinn; Gail Knebel, baritone; Ensemble, Don Graffis, Bob King, Darlene Surber, cornet trio. The band entered the band contest, and marching contest. The district contest was held at Francesville, April 6.

The student-council meetings were something new this year in which all the teachers and the officers of the four upper classes took an interest. The main object of these meetings was to plan the school activities so that two classes would not be conflicting on party dates, the use of the gym, etc.

The first meeting was on October 19, 1945 and the main discussion was how to choose the basketball boys that should go to the state finals in the spring. A committee was chosen to make-up the rules for the boys to abide by during the year and to be scored at the end of the season. This committee consisted of: Mr. Carpenter, Neil Hoesel, Kathryn Fisher, Mrs. Servies, and Jack Capper. A committee was also appointed to choose the boys, they were: Harold Brown, Ralph Bishop, Mrs. Servies, Mrs. Moyer, Joe Bill Newman, Kenneth Kistler, and Kathryn Fisher.

A school Christmas party was the next thing to plan. It was decided to have it on December 20 at the school gymnasium. The upper six grades were included in this party. The secretaries of the classes were on the decorating committee; vice presidents on the refreshments; and the presidents on the entertainment. Every class had their own gift exchange.

Throughout the year minor dates have been voted on; the Sunshine dance, Sophomore skating party, stunts for Farmer's Institute, etc.

Everyone feels that these meetings have been a help to the whole student body in avoiding conflicts and hopes that they continue in years to come.

KATHRYN FISHER.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

First Row: Lois Ann Bishop, Joan Ruff, Joan Bauman, Wanda Bonnell, Doris Kistler, Yvonna Fisher, Elaine Perry, Joyce Royer.

Second Row: Mrs. Carpenter, Virginia Brown, Imogene Scott, Arlean Grostefon, Delight Moon, Eileen Hollis, Kathryn Fisher, Mary Kasten, Hazel Frazier, Lois Jean Bucks, Jeannee Quinn, Mrs. Servies.

Third Row: Margaret Bonnell, Phyllis Brust, Annabelle Fox, Nancy Huff, Nellie Kaiser, Margery Ruff, Lillian Bonnell, Julia Russell, Delores McCroskey.

The Sunshine Society was brought for the first time to Star City High School by Mrs. Servies.

Several meetings were held in the library for any of the high school girls who wished to attend, to try to get the idea across, and to see just how many would like to have a Sunshine Society. The idea seemed like a good one so with the help of the Winamac Sunshine girls, the Star City Sunshine Society was organized.

Officers were elected immediately and are as follows: Doris Kistler, President; Wanda Bonnell, Vice President; Elaine Perry, recording secretary; Yvonna Fisher, corresponding secretary; Joan Bauman, treasurer.

An initiation program was held at the Methodist church with a beautiful candle light service on November 28, 1945. Meetings were held on the first Wednesday of each month, and books were reviewed and business was discussed.

In the December meeting, the idea of decorating the high school rooms was brought before the girls. So the work began, and all rooms in the high school were decorated in the bright, gay colors of Christmas. Everyone appreciated the Christmas spirit which the decorations brought forth.

In the January meeting the idea to have a "Sweetheart Dance" was advanced and approved, the time being set for February 13, 1946. The girls worked industriously decorating the gymnasium accenting Valentine Day. The dance was formal, and the girls invited their escorts. The party was a great success and the boys all thought they should have another as long as they did not have to help with the decorating.

At the February meeting, the idea was discussed of having a spring carnival to raise funds for the Society. Everyone agreed and the idea was started upon at once. Soon the carnival became a reality. So on March 22, 1946, the high school gym was a scene of the Sunshine Carnival.

BASKETBALL

Star City High School's basketball team of 1945-46 under the coaching of D. P. Surber, did not have a very successful season. The team did fairly well considering the competition and the scores of the games lost. The team, winning only 6 out of 19 games for 32%, which isn't very good, played some very good games, for of the 13 games lost, 6 were lost by 3 or less points. Also the Stars won the Invitational Tourney at Kewanna, December 29.

The Starlets won 10 out of 17 games, for 59%. The Starlets were the "runner ups" in the County Tourney, but lost out to Pulaski in the finals. There seems to be some very good talent in the ranks of the Starlets to fill the vacancies of the graduating seniors on the first team.

In the Invitational Tourney, the Stars defeated Monterey in the opening session of the afternoon of December 29 by a score of 32-24. Kewanna won over Grass Creek in the next session to win the right to appear in the finals against the Stars. The game was close all the way and the Stars eked out the game in the final minutes of play.

January 16, was the County Tourney at Monterey where the Stars weren't as fortunate as they were in the Invitational, for they bowed to the Pulaski five in the opening game. Star City's second team showed better by defeating Francesville 17-15 in their first game but fell short in their final game against Pulaski as they were defeated 11-27.

In the Sectional Tourney February 22, the Stars fell behind the highly regarded Akron team to lose the first game 26-32.

The "Has-beens" defeated the "Will-bees" 44 to 25 in a fast and well played game on March 20 to end the Basketball season. The seniors led all the way with scoring honors by Burgess, Hoesel, and Daily for the victors and Groom for the "Under Dogs." Seniors: Daily 12, Hoesel 11, Burgess 14, Graffis 7, Allen, and Hood. Will-bees: Groom 8, Parcel 6, Hettinger 3, Batty 3, Carpenter 2, Smith 1, Schultz 2, and Berkshire.

CLASS OF 1946

They say life is a highway and its milestones
are the years,

And now and then there's a toll-gate where you pay your way with tears.

It's a rough road and a steep road and it stretches broad and far,

But it leads at last to a Golden Town where Golden Houses are.
